Cooking for Blokes

We a great response to our cooking class concept. We held our first cooking class at Georgies in October and the 'blokes' had a great time together while scoring a few points with their partners. They learnt about getting the best results from their BBQ, looking at things like temperature control, correct oil, marinating and using the wok to make a complete meal on the BBQ.

To all of you who responded with party food classes we haven't forgotten you and are working on doing classes at the new commercial kitchen at Catherine Mc Auley in the new year so the classes can be more hands on.—so stay tuned and we will give first preference to those who have already responded.

If you are looking for a last minute Christmas gift we have cooking class vouchers available now.

Eli is heading off to Dream World

Eli Lynch was the lucky winner of a family pass to Dream World in our family values promotion. This is the first time Eli has won a prize before so this is a great first time win for him. Congratulations!

At Georgie's we welcome children to come and dine with their parents and experience eating out. It is a great skill to have and builds confidence ready for their first date as young adults!.

GEORGIE'S IS AUSTRALIA'S FAVOURITE PLACE TO EAT!

There was much excitement in the Café on Tuesday 4th December when the Life Style Food Channel came secretly to Grafton to present Georgie's with three awards in the "I love Food Awards".

NSW Favourite Place to Eat

Australia's Favourite Modern Australian And Australia's Favourite Place to eat

Host Chef Ben O'Donoghue (Surfing the menu, The Best, and Great BBQ Challenge), and a crew of 3 flew into Grafton to capture a segment for the Life Style Food Channel to be aired after the 10th of December.

I didn't think we had a chance of winning but thought that it was a great opportunity to tell our email list of guests to vote so they could enter in the $7000 eating spree or one of the $100 vouchers given away every day. Two of our lucky guests did win one of the prizes of $100 —congratulations to Stephanie Haines of Grafton and M. Shanahan of Woolli. We are still crossing our fingers for the big prize to go to a Grafton guest!

If we thought our kitchen was tiny it certainly felt like playing sardines with four extra people in there filming Mark, Geoff and Ryan cooking up some delicious meals for the camera in the middle of the lunch time rush (they wanted real action, not staged!)—the pressure was really on but they kept their cool and made some great looking dishes. Mark even created a new dish on the spot so he could highlight the beautiful local blue eye cod, sea scallops and Yamba prawns he had picked up in the morning from Col, at Naeco Blue. It will have to go on the menu! Ben was wowed "that's sensational, so moist and cooked perfectly, you are so lucky to have such amazing products so close."

chasing Annie, Fiona, Vicki and Will with plates of food across the courtyard, Bill Crispin (Grafton farmers market) delivering his gorgeous organic butter lettuces and Russian garlic and they interviewed regular guests and travellers about what they liked about Georgie's.

The crew spent 5 hours in the restaurant capturing live action like

LifeStyle FOOD Channel would like to thank everyone who voted in the I LOVE FOOD AWARDS and congratulate all the daily winners.

We will be announcing the winner of the $7,000 major prize as well as unveiling your favourite places to eat out on Monday 10 December in our brand new LifeStyle FOOD Channel EAT OUT GUIDE.

We are very proud to be bringing a focus onto Grafton over the next year as a destination for a great food experience. Over the holiday period we are hoping for lots of food lovers to swing off the highway to discover Grafton and the gallery on their journey.

We are so thankful for having such fantastic guests who have supported us over the years and by voting (the real secret of our success) and those who were cornered by the camera and graciously said lovely things about us! Thank you! Thank you! Thank You! Judy
